The Daily Courant.

Monday, April 17. 1704

From the Paris Gazette, dated April 5.

Venice, March 15.

THEY write from Modena, that the Inhabitants of that Country had been oblig'd to take an Oath of Fidelity to the King of Spain, and that Money is coining there with his Catholick Majesty's Name on it. They are making great Preparations at San Benedetto for some Enterprize, the Execution of which will 'tis thought be delay'd, because the great Rains have so swell'd the Rivers, that the Secchia having overflow'd its Banks, has put the Country about Mirandola under Water. 2000 Grenadiers sent by the Duke of Vendome, and 2000 Men of the Troops of the State of Milan, are arriv'd at San Benedetto. The Imperialists receive Recruits from time to time from the Trentin; yet they have abandon'd the Guard of the Passages of the Secchia, and have drawn all their Men into Ostiglia, Revere, Concordia, and Mirandola; But first they ruin'd the Country, insomuch that the People were forc'd to retire into the Ferrareze to get Sustinence. There is a strong Report, that the Imperialists have receiv'd Orders to go all to Piemont; which in all likelihood they will find a difficult Task.

From the Paris Gazette, dated April 12.

Venice, March 22. Letters from Mantua of the 15th and 18th of this Month inform us, that the Barks laden with Cannon and Mortars, and other necessary Provisions for some Enterprize, were arriv'd at the Camp at San Benedetto, convoy'd by 2 Galiots; that the Grand Prior of France was come thither likewise with all the general Officers; and that he had posted 4000 Men near Governolo, to give Umbrage to the Imperialists; but the execution of his Designs were retarded by the continual Rains. Wherefore waiting till the Weather grows fairer, he march'd to Concordia, and took it without resistance, made the Garrison Prisoners, and took a great deal of Baggage The Imperialists take all possible Precautions for defending themselves, particularly at Revere and Ostiglia, where they have rais'd Batteries to cover the Bridge they have made between those 2 Places. General Trautmansdorf, who commands them, is indispos'd; yet he does not neglect the giving proper Orders in this Juncture. The Baron Martini, and most of the other Officers, have sent their Wives and Baggage to Ferrara, with Prince Eugene's Baggage which he left at Revere.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated April 8.

Mantua. March 19. The Grand Prior having sufficiently provided for the Defence of Concordia, has been oblig'd to defer his intended Expedition to attack Revere till the Weather comes fair; so the 16th he sent his Troops back into their former Quarters, and himself return'd hither the 17th. The Enemies on Advice that our Troops were march'd back, advanc'd yesterday with 500 Horse and a like Number of Foot to Concordia, but finding the Garrison ready to give them a warm Reception, they contented themselves with Pillaging some Country Houses, and turn'd back to Revere.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated April 22.

Revere, March 31. The 27th instant at Night, the young Prince of Vaudemont and General Visconti arriv'd here from Piemont, and have taken upon them the Command of the Forces in these Quarters. We expect to be attack'd by the Enemy.

From the Paris Gazette, dated March 29.

Casal, March 13. The Germans having taken Post in Robbio and Rozasco in the Novarese, between the Sesia and the Lines the Duke of Vendome has order'd to be thrown up along the Gogna; he resolv'd to dislodge them, while the Overflowing of the Rivers would prevent the Enemies drawing together out of their Quarters to oppose his executing that Design. He gave the Conduct of his Enterprize to the Count d'Estain Lieutenant General, who march'd the 11th instant with the Sieur de Goes Major General, the Count d'Esterre Brigadier, 200 Horse, and 500 Foot. He arriv'd the same day at Robbio, and met near the Suburbs 30 German Foot who were advancing thither, guarded by 20 Horse. The King's Hussars fell upon them, kill'd 7 and took 23 Prisoners of the Foot; for the 20 Horse fled and left them to themselves. There were 45 Dragoons and 50 Foot in Robbio, who all quitted the Town, and retir'd into the Castle. Our Men entred the Town, and immediately rais'd a Battery for 2 small Pieces of Cannon which on the 12th by day-break began to play; but at 7 in the Morning the Enemies offer'd to capitulate and surrendred themselves Prisoners of War. At the same time the Sieur de Champagnelle, Captain of Grenadiers in the Regiment of Piemont, who was garrison'd in Cozzo, being inform'd the Imperialists intended to pillage Rozasco and then to abandon it, resolv'd to prevent them. He march'd out of Cozzo with his Lieutenant and 45 Soldiers; and coming to Rozasco without being discover'd, got over the Intrenchments into the Place, and beat the Imperialists out of it, with the loss of 2 Men. The Duke of Vendome has put a Battallion into Robbio, and 2 into Rozasco; and by means of these 2 Posts and those of Cozzo and Monticello, he has cover'd a good part of the Lines along the Gogna which are guarded by Militia.

From the Paris Gazette, dated April 12.

Milan, March 26. The Troops keep quiet in their Quarters on the Frontiers of Piemont, till the Season be fit for opening the Campaign. All the Cavalry is remounted; 4000 Recruits is already arriv'd and the rest are expected as fast as the Transports can pass and repass. The little Town of Concordia in the Dutchy of Mirandola, is burnt; and the Marques de St. Fremont Lieutenant General, has possess'd himself of a Castle in the Garfagnane, a County belonging to the Duke of Modena, in the Mountains between Tuscany and the State of Genoa. This Castle was of use to the Enemy for keeping a Communication between Piemont and their Forces on the Secchia; and 30 or 40 Germans were taken Prisoners in it.

Brussels, April 3. The 28th of last Month the Marshal de Villeroy went from hence to Antwerp, and view'd the Forts and Lines in the Country of Waes and on the edge of Brabant. The 29th he went to Mechlen, and the 30th to Judoigne, whence he went the 31st to advance, with an Army that was drawn together by his Order, towards that part of the Lines which the Enemy demolish'd in the Winter. He canton'd his Troops in the Villages thereabouts, took up his Head Quarters at Meerdorp between Hanuye and Waseige, and causing some Detachments only to advance to cover the Workmen, he set so many at work, and and made them labour so hard, that the same Evening the Lines were perfectly repair'd and made stronger than they were before. The Enemy being inform'd of his Motions, drew a great Number of Troops out of their Garrisons, and form'd an Army of them in the Neighbourhood of Liege. Yet, they did not make any offer to oppose this Work. 'Tis advis'd that Collonel de la Croix has surpriz'd the little Town of Wooringen on the Rhine, between Cologne and Dusseldorp, in which were 100 Dragoons who were all kill'd or taken, and 60 Horses were taken; as also that another Party of his Regiment has taken 3 Waggons loaded with Arms, most of which they carried off and burnt the rest. The Marquess de Bedmar has order'd publick Prayers to be made throughout the Spanish Netherlands, for the Preservation of his Catholick Majesty's Person, in the War he is entring into against Portugal, and for the Success of the Arms of France and Spain.
